Links for Life owes a debt of gratitude to our community for their support

Why support the 13th Annual Links for Life Gala, Auction and Pro-Am Golf Tournament

In 2005, the Links for Life event raised over $100,000. Because of this success Links for Life was able to:

- Fielded over 4,000 calls regarding questions related to Breast Cancer.
- Provide 240 Wigs and 20 Bras/Prosthesis.
- Arrange for 440 Mammograms, 242 Ultrasounds and 45 needle biopsies for women under 40 that are uninsured or under-insured by private health plans.
- RESULTS—4 Positive cancers were found. 3 women under 40 and 1 man.
- Lives are being saved!

Save the date—April 1st and 3rd, 2006 Seven Oaks Country Club Bakersfield, Ca.

2nd Annual Hockey-Thon Raises Over $20,000 Proceeds benefit local cancer resource center Bakersfield, Calif. The 2nd Annual Condors Fighting Cancer Hockey-Thon brings in $20,384.77 for Links for Life, a breast cancer resource center serving Kern County. The two-year event total reaches $43,766.47. Last season, the first hockey-thon was held March 25-26, 2005. Organized by former Fog and Condors defenseman Kevin Barrett, the event included more than 75 players of all ages and experience levels completing a combined 27 hours of hockey. The event began with the Condors home game on Friday, December 30th against the Fresno Falcons. Following that game, the puck dropped at the nearby Bakersfield Ice Sports Center and continued through the night and the next day. Then, at 5pm on Saturday, December 31st, the games came back to the Rabobank Arena with the Condors Legends and Celebrity game featuring former Condors Kevin Barrett, Jamie Cooke, Steve Dowhy, Brian McCarthy, Glen Mears, Al Murphy, and Paul Rosebush, current Condors Assistant Coach Mark Pederson, broadcaster Devin Rossiter, and several other local celebrities and media personnel.
